

Whakatauki		Context
Wahia te toi huarewa o te auahatanga, hei kete toitoi manawa mō Tāmaki Makaurau Seek the pathway of creativity as a kete of inspiration for Auckland		Creativity is central to human wellbeing, relationships and our future, and should be valued There is a need to centre te ao Māori and decolonise the creative ecosystem	Existing funding models need to be more equitable and inclusive. Greater equity, and visible, authentic inclusion is needed across multiple spaces – including governance, policy and funding	Connectivity, networks and collaboration strengthen the creative ecosystem Te Taumata Toi-a-Iwi has a regional focus on Tāmaki Makaurau, whilst seeking to influence nationally
Our Pou (change strategies)
Convene Building connections, listening and hosting space for creative conversations. Enable creative collaboration within and beyond the ngā toi arts, culture and creative ecosystem.		Activate Initiating and co-investing in opportunities with potential to strengthen capability for impact across the ngā toi arts, culture and creative ecosystem	Disrupt Innovating, experimenting and challenging the status quo to create opportunities to ignite and enable creativity	Lead Providing leadership for the ngā toi arts, culture and creative ecosystem, advocating and influencing for change to ensure creativity is recognised, valued and invested in	Decolonise Centering te ao Māori, privileging Māori voices, and decolonising systems, policies, institutions and decision-making spaces
Strategic priorities		Outcomes (three years)		Signs of progress (one year)
Ngā Toi Māori development and centering te ao Māori	Māori-led development of Ngā Toi Māori networks and infrastructure Centering te ao Māori in ngā toi arts, culture and creative strategy and policy Embedding te ao Māori across Te Taumata structure and practices Growing relationships with Mana Whenua in Tāmaki Makaurau	Ngā Toi Māori networks are strengthening Māori participation in regional governance, strategy and decision making Te Taumata is building relationships with Mana Whenua in Tāmaki Makaurau Te Taumata is building knowledge about what centering te ao Māori looks like for our organisation and for the sector
Visioning, tactical leadership and advocacy	A future focused vision for the regional and national creative ecosystem Inclusive platforms for sector voices to influence decision-making More effective regional and national policy, strategy, and investment	Ngā toi arts, culture and creative ecosystem voices are connected into regional and national decision-making processes Te Taumata provides policy and strategy advice to local and central government
Funding equity and access	Funding practices centre equity and inclusion More equitable, inclusive, accessible and mana enhancing funding models Alternative funding models enable greater sustainability and resilience across the creative ecosystem	Convening of regional arts funders on equity, inclusion and access issues Alternative funding models/pathways are designed Co-investment in pathways to increase regional arts funding equity, inclusion and access
Regional ngā toi arts, culture and creative ecosystem development and infrastructure	Increased regional co-investment in sector infrastructure Collective impact / network approaches support regional arts development and capability building A regional sector development model is developed and could be replicated nationally	Te Taumata develops strategic co-investment partnerships Te Taumata acts as a network host and collective impact backbone Collaborative regional capability building initiatives are in place			